

Newmarket Model Flying Club Constitution

Note: Throughout this document, words of masculine gender should be taken to include the feminine gender unless the context indicates otherwise.

A. GENERAL

1. The club shall be called Newmarket Model Flying Club and will be affiliated to the British Model Flying Association. The club is also referred to as Newmarket MFC and the name is often abbreviated to NMFC.
2. The club's principal aim shall be the promotion of safe and responsible R/C model aircraft flying. The club focuses on powered (IC and electric) fixed wing aircraft and gliders.
3. Alterations to this constitution can only be made at an Annual General Meeting or at a General Meeting called for that purpose. Any proposed alterations must be submitted to the club secretary in writing at least 14 days prior to the meeting.

B. MEMBERS

4. The term 'member' means any of the following classes of membership:
 - a. Junior (aged under 18 years)
 - b. Senior (aged 18 to 64 years)
 - c. Senior Citizen (aged 65 years and over)
 - d. Honorary (see paragraph 13).
5. The Club is limited to a total of 100 members. If necessary new applicants will be placed on a waiting list which will be processed in order of application.
6. The Committee has the right to refuse membership to new applicants. Any refusal will be documented in committee meeting minutes together with the reason(s) for refusal; refusal may not be on the grounds of race, gender, sexuality or disability.
7. New members will be required to serve an initial probationary period of 6 months. During this time they will not be eligible to serve on the Committee and may, at the discretion of the Committee, have their membership terminated for unsatisfactory conduct. Such dismissals do not need to follow the disciplinary procedure described in paragraph 21.
8. New members' subscriptions shall be dependent on membership class, plus a joining fee of one half of the annual class membership fee. Membership fees are decided at the Annual General Meeting.
9. Club subscriptions are due by 1st January each year. Any member who has not paid the club subscription for the ensuing year by this date, in whole or in part, will not be permitted to fly until they have done so.
10. Members may opt to join or renew BMFA membership through the club, in which case they pay their BMFA subscription to the club who then pay the BMFA on their behalf. Members who choose to manage their own BMFA membership (either as Country Members or as members of another club) may not fly until their BMFA membership is in place and must be prepared to provide evidence of such on request.

11. Members who have not renewed their membership by the end of February will be deemed to have left the club. A renewal after this period will be treated as a new membership application for which the club joining fee is payable. If necessary, the applicant will be placed on the waiting list for new members (see paragraph 5).
12. Applications for membership made after 1st October will be extended until the end of the following year (i.e. a maximum of 15 months), although BMFA membership is required for both years.
13. The Committee may, at its discretion, award honorary membership for extensive services to the club. Honorary members have their annual Club and BMFA membership fees paid by the club. The Committee may also, at its discretion, waive the Club and BMFA membership fees for members with specific responsibilities, such as the maintenance and management of the Club's mowing equipment.
14. All members, without exception, must comply with all club rules. The rules are published on the club's website and are available from the club secretary on request. Failure to comply with club rules may result in disciplinary action by the Club which may lead to dismissal.
15. Members may invite guest fliers to the club's sites by arrangement with the Committee. Guests must be able to provide evidence of current BMFA membership and the club member must assume total responsibility for the actions and safety of the guest. Guests must fly under the supervision of instructors if their ability requires it; such arrangements must be made in advance of the visit.

C. RULES, DISCIPLINE AND SAFETY

16. Additions and amendments to field safety rules and regulations can only be made by proposals at a General Meeting.
17. All field safety rules and regulations will be reviewed annually, and will be considered binding for 12 months, excepting where urgent action is required. This action must then be ratified by the members at the next general meeting.
18. Any complaint concerning any member must be made in writing and signed by the complainant(s). The written complaint must then be forwarded to the Club Secretary so that the matter can be addressed at the next Committee meeting.
19. Where an allegation of misconduct is made against a member, the member may be suspended from all club activities while an investigation is carried out. Suspension pending an investigation does not infer blame or guilt.
20. In the event of misconduct, the Committee may suspend a member from club activities (including attendance at the club flying sites), for a period of up to 28 days. Any suspension will be accompanied by a verbal and/or written warning as deemed appropriate in accordance with paragraph 21.
21. The Committee may consider removal of membership where conduct on the field or elsewhere is considered to be prejudicial to the club. Dismissal will be in accordance with the following procedure in order to comply with the laws of natural justice:

- a. The member will be given a verbal warning by an authorised Committee Member in which the member is made aware of his misdemeanour and what he is reasonably required to do to make amends.
- b. If the member does not respond, he will be given a written warning by an authorised Committee Member to advise him of his misdemeanour and what he is reasonably required to do to make amends.
- c. If the member still fails to respond, the Committee will invite him (in writing) to meet with them at an agreed date and time to discuss the situation, advising that they are considering withdrawal of his membership.
- d. If the member still fails to respond to reasoning or fails to attend the meeting without reasonable cause, the Committee may advise him (in writing) that his membership is withdrawn, stating the reasons why this decision was reached.
- e. When the member is advised of withdrawal of his membership, he will be given the right of appeal. If he opts to appeal, this will be to the Club membership at an Extraordinary General Meeting which the Committee will call on his behalf. The motion to uphold the membership withdrawal, or reverse it, must be in accordance with the voting procedures set out in section H.

In the event of gross misconduct, immediate dismissal without warnings may be considered but the member will still be accorded his right to present his case to the Committee and given a right of appeal in accordance with sub-paragraphs c, d and e above.

In the event of dismissal the Committee will arrange for the member's current membership fee (excluding any BMFA subscription) to be reimbursed in full.

D. FLYING

22. The Committee, Officers and Instructors, are be responsible for the running of the flying sites at all times. Appointment to the position of Instructor or Examiner can only be made by a Committee decision.
23. All members must undergo training by a Club approved instructor and complete the BMFA 'A' or Basic Proficiency Certificate and before being permitted to fly indirectly supervised or solo. The Committee reserves the right to waive this requirement in the case of long-standing club members who can demonstrate the necessary competence but without undergoing a formal achievement assessment.
24. Any member whose flying standards, in the opinion of the Committee, Officers or Instructors, drop below the minimum requirement will be required to fly under supervision until a satisfactory standard has been reached.
